

Did you know?

N-IUSSP | February 22, 2016

The world is now more urban than rural, and that we are heading towards the 70% threshold by 2050. Nevertheless, deep differences in patterns of urban growth emerge across the globe.